

SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 30, 1940.

Prize Competition House Opened

Architectural prize competition four-room home at $1905 Ivory, sponsored by the Spokane better housing committee, opened to public inspection yesterday for two weeks. Construction of the home, in the $4000 class, was financed by First Federal Savings & Loan association. Architect, Edwin J. Peterson; contractor, John Dostert; landscape architect, Edward Balzer.