About

The Wanapum Heritage Center presents, maintains, and continues Wanapum history and way of life. The museum is located next to Wanapum dam on the Columbia River. Visitors to the museum can steer a steamboat, view historical artifacts or watch videos of Wanapum history, the Columbia River, and more.

An agreement between the Wanapum and the Grant County PUD was made in 1956. The Grant County PUD promised to maintain and protect the Wanapum way of life. Today this agreement is alive through the Wanapum Heritage Center.
