Fort Columbia

FORT COLUMBIA STATE PARK

FORT COLUMBIA
THE "FUR TRADE" STATE

Here was the home of the Chinook Indians and their great chief, Comcomly.

Capt. Robert Gray dropped anchor near here after his discovery of the Columbia river in 1792.

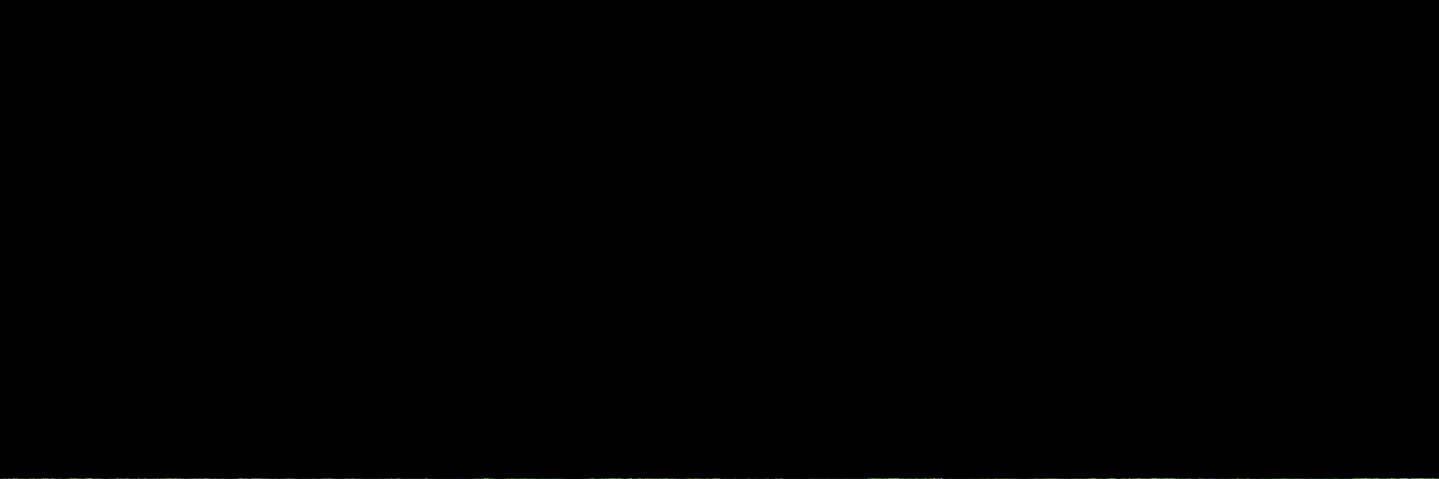

In the days of the fur trade this area was witness to many stirring events, and in 1843 Capt. Scarborough here became the first permanent settler to the north of the Columbia.

For years this promontory served as a vital landmark for the safe crossing of the Columbia's bar.

Finally, as a coastal fort, its guns here guarded the mouth of the river from 1896 until the end of World War II.

Erected by the Washington State Highway Commission in Cooperation with the State Parks and Recreation Commission.
