

circulans or catalogs.

Messrs. James E. Blackwell and F. L. Baker, who for many years practised architecture under the firm name of Blackwell & Baker, Seattle, Wash., have dissolved partnership. Mr. Blackwell will continue practising in the present offices in the Northern Bank Building, while Mr. Baker will open a new office in the Hinckley Block.

The American Architect – Jan 3, 1917