

Archaeology Day is a one-day event intended to showcase the fields of archaeology and historic preservation, as well as highlight the Columbia Plateau cultural heritage. The emphasis of the activities is on how and why we study and preserve heritage.

The event is intended for the general public with family-friendly activities and the presentation of information that is interesting and accessible.

Homepage Url to Event <https://www.ewu.edu/stories/you-will-dig-archaeology-day/>

Admission is free and open to the public.

When

Saturday, October 6, 2018
10 am to 3 pm

Where

Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture
2316 West 1st Avenue
Spokane WA 99201
509.456.3931
<https://www.northwestmuseum.org/>

N O R T H W E S T
MUSEUM
A r t s + C u l t u r e

Sponsors

Association for Washington Archaeology
Colville Confederated Tribes
Colville National Forest
EWU Archaeological and Historical Services

Kalispel Tribe of Indians
Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture
Spokane Tribe of Indians
US Fish and Wildlife Service

Contact

Chris Noll
509.592.7576
cnoll77@gmail.com

