To print, select from the options below, First choose what to print; image only, image and citation, or citation only Next choose a paper size and page layout, making sure your printer settings match. Then click your browser's Print function.

Paper: Seattle Daily Times, published as The Seattle Daily Times; Date: 08-16-1920; Page: 11; Location: Seattle, Washington This entire product and/or portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or the American Antiquarian Society. 2004.

BUNGALOW HOME HAS FIVE LARGE ROOMS

GIVES TWENTY GOOD REASONS

Contestant in Los Angeles "Own Your Home" Contest Points Out Many Logical Arguments.

In a recent contest conducted by The Los Angeles Times cash prizes were awarded for the best letters giving reasons for home owning. Here is one of the prizo-winning letters submitted by Miss Jennie Van Allen, who prepared her letter under the title, "Twenty Reasons Why I should Own My Own Home." Miss Van Allen's reasons are both sentimental and practical, and it was the committee's underment that they were clearly and judgment that they were clearly and sincercly expressed. Her letter fol-

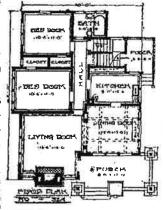

"Because it is in my blood, For generations we have been land owners because we believed the safest investwas the earth that held the world together.

World logsther.

"Eccause home is the foundation of our national prosperity. Because home ownership is the first step in establishing my citizenship. Because I have to live somewhere and, unless I am a parasite living on the labor of others, I must pay board or rent or own my own home.

"Because I can own a home if I do

"Because I can own a home it I do not shrink from the pinching process. Because I can buy a lot on the installment plan that is within the reach of a small or can buy a lot on the installment plan that is within the reach of a small or can be small or ca

"Bocause I am less afraid of taxes and special assessments than of rent day—they come but once or twice a year; the landled every month. Because I would not have my child own reared in a rested house, but he would not have the home of my childhood, where everything new marked an oppod in our family life. "Bocause everyone, married or single, should own a home. Hotels, hall hedrooms or rooms with kitchen privileges are unspeakably cheeriess and on nt fighter self-respect or good cilienship.

"Bocause my home gives me the fin-

Earship.

"Bogause my home gives me the finest some of independence of any earthly pessession. Hecause my home frees me from the possibility of being supported by public or private charity.
Bogause I will never become, an unwelcome legacy to generations yet unborn. Because, if that terrible day comes when I am bereft of all I hold most preclous, is till can say 'I have a home.

"Because, if I own a home."

"Because, if I own a home, I cannot be dispossessed. Because my home makes me a hotter citzen, and the earning of it teaches conservation of makes me a factor in civic life. Secause my home is the heat-paying investment I can make. I ceace to be a chattel. I am no longer a nomentity, I meriled and commanded respect as suon as I began paying for a home. I became a power in my little world when I became a faxpayer. And when the perplexities of my husiners day are ended I reolica to may, 'Good night, I am going home.'"

HOUSE IS MODEL OF CONVENIENCE AND COSTS ONLY $4.800

This bungalow makes a very pleasing and inviting home in every respect. The fireplace and porch columns are stucen finish. Every room in the house is of good proportion and there is every desirable convenience. The screened porch is of good size. A little ballway between the bedrooms is a good feature, giving outrance from any part of the house to the bath. In every way the arrangement of rooms is a model of convenience, and there is ample room on the second floor for a couple of small chambers, as well as a sleeping porch in the roar.

This bouse can be built under present prices for approximately $4,800. This estimate does not include heating plant or electric fixtures, but in other respects is com-

The plans and specifications as woll as the estimate of cost of this attractive home were prepared by Yoho & Merritt, the Craftsmen Dealgners, Empire Building.

C. C. RAMSAY & CO.

311 New York Block

Real Estate

Puget