

Cowlitz-Yakama Trail: History & Archaeology

A presentation by archaeologist Rick McClure who will provide an overview of the history and archaeology of the Cowlitz-Yakama Trail; an important trans-Cascadian travel and trade route that connected Native communities on the Cowlitz River with those to the east of the mountains. The program will summarize recent efforts to identify, document, and assess remaining portions of the historic trail.

Admission is Free.

When

Monday, October 15, 2018
7:00 pm

Where

White Pass Country Historical Museum
12990 US Highway 12
Packwood WA
360.494.4422
whitepasscountrymuseum.org/

Sponsors

White Pass Country Historical Society

Contact

Janet Grose, President
360.494.4007
jgrose@centurylink.net