

SEARCH TIMES : 9.9.51 . P 23

R. D. Rogers, Former Seattle Architect, Dies

A
H
C

Roy Drake Rogers, 75, of Hollywood, Calif., a Seattle architect for 30 years, died Monday in Los Angeles after a short illness. His body was cremated.

By
sti
Ho
An Mu
F der wh the

Mr. Rogers designed many homes in the Broadmoor and Magnolia Districts of Seattle and many homes of movie actors and actresses in Hollywood. He also designed the Field Artillery Armory and various business and office buildings here.

sid
Of
rac wh cap and dre wa
Un
Wa
—

Mr. Rogers was born in Minneapolis and attended college in Boston. He came here in 1899 and had lived in Hollywood for about 20 years.

Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Edith Dahl, Tarzana, Calif.; Clarence Rogers, Seattle, and a sister, Mrs. Frank W. Relf, La Jolla, Calif.

—